Caring for someone else's child for 28+ days?

Or maybe you know someone who is?

This is classed as 'private fostering'. Find out about support and why you should notify your council.

Know someone caring for a child who isn't their own?

If they aren't a close relative and have cared for the child for over 28 days, this may be classed as 'private fostering'.

Reporting it to the local authority ensures they receive the right support for the great job they're doing.
